IMPORTANT.  Read the following NXP MQX RTOS Software Commercial License Agreement ("Agreement") completely.  By selecting the "I Accept" button at the end of this page, you indicate that you accept the terms of the Agreement and you acknowledge that you have the authority, for yourself or on behalf of your company, to bind your company to these terms. You may then download or install the file.

NXP MQX RTOS Software Commercial License Terms and Conditions

This Agreement, effective as of the date of the purchase and completed download of the Licensed Software ("Effective Date"), is entered into between you, as an authorized representative of your employer, or if you have no employer, as an individual (together "you" or "Licensee"), and NXP USA Inc. ("NXP"). It concerns your rights to use the MQX RTOS software purchased under the License Type identified during the Order Process and provided to you in binary or source code form and any accompanying written materials (the "Licensed Software"). The Licensed Software may include any updates or error corrections or documentation relating to the Licensed Software provided to you by NXP under this Agreement. In consideration for NXP providing you access to download the Licensed Software, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If you do not agree to all of the terms of this Agreement, do not download or install the Licensed Software.

1. DEFINITIONS.
    1.1. For NXP, the term "Affiliate" means (i) any Person Controlled by NXP Semiconductors N.V. or (ii) any Person Controlled by any transferee of all or substantially all of the assets of NXP Semiconductors N.V., where "Controlled" means the direct or indirect beneficial ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting stock, or decision-making authority in the event that there is no voting stock, in another entity; provided, any such Person described in clause (i) or (ii) shall be deemed to be an "Affiliate" only for so long as such Person is Controlled by NXP Semiconductors N.V. or such transferee. For the purposes of this definition, "Person" is defined to mean "an individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, association, unincorporated association, trust or other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof."
    1.2. "Authorized System" means a Licensee product containing an NXP microprocessor supplied directly or indirectly from NXP.
    1.3. "Essential Patent" means a patent to the limited extent that infringement of such patent cannot be avoided in remaining compliant with the technology standards implicated by the usage of any of the Licensed Software, including optional implementation of the standards, on technical but not commercial grounds, taking into account normal technical practice and the state of the art generally available at the time of standardization.
    1.4. "NXP Product Family" means a line of NXP microcontrollers using the same general architecture and naming nomenclature.  By way of example, NXP's i.MX and Kinetis are two examples of NXP Product Families.
    1.5. "Multi-Product Line License" means Licensee products, within multiple product lines as identified during the Order Process, based on one NXP Product Family. The Multi-Product Line License is limited to a single operating system and the NXP microprocessor may vary within the same NXP Product Family.

1.6. "Order Process" means the electronic or other order mechanism used by you to purchase the Licensed Software.

1.7. "Intellectual Property Rights" means any and all rights under statute, common law or equity in and under copyrights, trade secrets, and patents (including utility models), and analogous rights throughout the world, including any applications for and the right to apply for, any of the foregoing.

1.8. "License Type" means the specified license type identified during the Order Process.

1.9. "Licensed Software" means the MQX RTOS software identified during the Order Process.

1.10. "Maintenance" means updates and bug fix releases to the Licensed Software and associated documentation. Maintenance shall be provided free of charge for a period of one year following the Effective Date of this Agreement. Annual maintenance contracts beyond the initial year can be purchased from NXP.

1.11. "Product Line License" means Licensee's product line identified during the Order Process that is limited to products that have a common functionality and purpose and are based on one NXP Product Family. The Product Line License is limited to a single operating system and the NXP microprocessor may vary within the same NXP Product Family.

1.12. "Production License" means a license that permits Licensee to use the Licensed Software in accordance with Section 2.1 and is selected during the Order Process.

1.13. "Single Product License" means a single Licensee product identified in during the Order Process based on one NXP microprocessor. The Single Product License is limited to a single operating system and a single NXP microprocessor, both identified during the Order Process.

1.14. "Third Party Software" means any software included in the Licensed Software that is not NXP proprietary software, and is not open source software, and to which different license terms may apply.

2. PRODUCTION LICENSE GRANT.

2.1. If Licensee has purchased a Production License during the Order Process, then subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including but not limited to payment of applicable fee, and exclusively in connection with Licensee's development and distribution of Authorized System(s)  and subject to the use limitations as indicated by the License Type selected for the Licensed Software during the Order Process, NXP grants Licensee a world-wide, personal, non-transferable, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, license, under NXP's Intellectual Property Rights:

(a)   to use and reproduce the Licensed Software only as part of, or integrated within, Authorized Systems and not on a standalone basis;

(b)   to directly or indirectly manufacture, demonstrate, copy, distribute, market and sell the Licensed Software in object code (machine readable) only as part of, or embedded within, Authorized Systems in object code form and not on a standalone basis.  Notwithstanding the foregoing, those files marked as .h files ("Header files") may be distributed in source or object code form, but only as part of, or embedded within Authorized Systems.

(c)   to copy, use and distribute as needed, solely in connection with an Authorized System, proprietary NXP information associated with the Licensed Software for the purpose of developing, maintaining and supporting Authorized Systems with which the Licensed Software is integrated or associated.

2.2. For NXP Licensed Software provided to Licensee in source code form (human readable), in addition to the rights granted in section 2.1, NXP further grants to Licensee a worldwide, personal, non-transferable, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, license, under NXP's Intellectual Property Rights:

(a)   to prepare derivative works of the Licensed Software, only as part of, or integrated within, Authorized Systems and not on a standalone basis;

(b)    to use, demonstrate, copy, distribute, market and sell the derivative works of the Licensed Software in object code (machine readable) only as part of, or integrated within, Authorized Systems and not on a standalone basis.  Notwithstanding the foregoing, those files marked as .h files ("Header files") may be distributed in source or object code form, but only as part of, or embedded within Authorized Systems.

3.   USE OF THIRD PARTIES AND THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE.
   3.1. Licensee may use subcontractors on its premises to exercise its rights under Section 2 so long as Licensee has an agreement in place with the subcontractor containing confidentiality restrictions no less stringent than those contained in this Agreement.  Licensee will remain liable for its subcontractors' adherence to the terms of this Agreement and for any and all acts and omissions of such subcontractors with respect to this Agreement and the Licensed Software.
   3.2. Separate license grants to Third Party Software, or other terms applicable to the Licensed Software if different from those granted in this Section 2, are contained in Appendix A. The Licensed Software is accompanied by a Software Content Register which will identify that portion of the Licensed Software, if any, that is subject to the different terms in Appendix A. NXP may from time to time update Appendix A in its sole discretion.

4.   LICENSE LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS.
   4.1. The licenses granted above in Section 2 only extend to NXP intellectual property rights that would be infringed by the Licensed Software prior to preparation of any derivative work.
   4.2. The Licensed Software is licensed to Licensee, not sold.  Title to Licensed Software delivered hereunder remains vested in NXP or NXP's licensor and cannot be assigned or transferred. Licensee is expressly forbidden from selling or otherwise distributing the Licensed Software, or any portion thereof, except as expressly permitted herein.  This Agreement does not grant to Licensee any implied rights under any NXP or third party intellectual property.
   4.3. Licensee may not translate, reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the Licensed Software except to the extent applicable law specifically prohibits such restriction.  Licensee must prohibit its sub-licensees from translating, reverse engineering, decompiling, or disassembling the Licensed Software except to the extent applicable law specifically prohibits such restriction.
   4.4. Licensee must reproduce any and all of NXP's (or its third party licensor's) copyright notices and other proprietary legends on copies of Licensed Software.
   4.5. If Licensee distributes the Licensed Software to the United States Government, then the Licensed Software is "restricted computer software" and is subject to FAR 52.227-19 (c)(1) and (c)(2).
   4.6. Licensee grants to NXP a non-exclusive, non-transferable, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free, sub-licensable license under Licensee's Intellectual Property Rights to use without restriction and for any purpose any suggestion, comment or other feedback related to the Licensed Software (including, but not limited to, error corrections and bug fixes).
   4.7. Licensee will not take or fail to take any action that could subject the Licensed Software to an Excluded License. An Excluded License means any license that requires, as a condition of use, modification or distribution of software subject to the Excluded License, that such software or other software combined and/or distributed with the software be (i) disclosed or distributed in source code form; (ii) licensed for the purpose of making derivative works; or (iii) redistributable at no charge.

4.8. Licensee may not publish or distribute information, results or data associated with the use of the Licensed Software to anyone other than NXP; however, Licensee must advise NXP of any results obtained including any problems or suggested improvements thereof.  NXP retains the right to use such results and related information in any manner it deems appropriate.

5. OPEN SOURCE.

5.1. Open source software included in the Licensed Software is not licensed under the terms of this Agreement, but is instead licensed under the terms of the applicable open source license(s), such as the BSD License, Apache License or the GNU Lesser General Public License.  Licensee's use of the open source software is subject to the terms of each applicable license.  Licensee must agree to the terms of each applicable license, or Licensee cannot use the open source software.

5.2. Licensee will not take or fail to take any action that could subject the Software, Tools or both to an Excluded License. An Excluded License means any license that requires, as a condition of use, modification and/or distribution of software subject to the Excluded License, that such software or other software combined and/or distributed with such software be (i) disclosed or distributed in source code form; (ii) licensed for the purpose of making Derivative Works; or (iii) redistributable at no charge.  Licensee will immediately notify NXP if it breaches its obligations under this section 5.2.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.   Subject to NXP's ownership interest in the underlying Licensed Software, all intellectual property rights associated with, and title to, Licensee's Authorized System will be retained by or will vest in Licensee. Licensee's modifications to the Licensed Software, and all intellectual property rights associated with, and title thereto, will be the property of NXP.  Upon request, Licensee must provide NXP the source code of any derivative of the Licensed Software. Licensee agrees to assign all, and hereby does assign all rights, title, and interest to any such modifications to the Licensed Software to NXP and agrees to provide all assistance reasonably requested by NXP to establish, preserve or enforce such right.  Further, Licensee agrees to waive all moral rights relating to its modifications to the Licensed Software, including, without limitation, all rights of identification of authorship and all rights of approval, restriction, or limitation on use or subsequent modification.  Notwithstanding the foregoing, Licensee will have the license rights granted in Section 2 hereto to any such modifications made by Licensee or its licensees.

7. PATENT COVENANT NOT TO SUE. As partial, material consideration for the rights granted to Licensee under this Agreement, Licensee covenants not to sue or otherwise assert its patents against NXP, an NXP Affiliate or subsidiary, or an NXP licensee of the Licensed Software for infringement of Licensee's Intellectual Property Rights by the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale, importation or other disposition or promotion of the Licensed Software and/or any redistributed portions of the Licensed Software.

8. ESSENTIAL PATENTS.  Licensee is solely responsible for obtaining licenses for any relevant Essential Patents for Licensee's use in connection with technology that Licensee incorporates into the its product (whether as part of the Licensed Software or not).

9. TERM AND TERMINATION.   This Agreement will remain in effect unless terminated as provided in this Section 9.

    9.1. Licensee may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to NXP at the address provided below.

    9.2. Either party may terminate this Agreement if the other party is in default of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and termination is effective if the defaulting party fails to correct such default within 30 days after written notice thereof by the non-defaulting party to the defaulting party at the address below.

    9.3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, NXP may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice if Licensee: breaches any of its confidentiality obligations or the license restrictions under this Agreement; becomes bankrupt, insolvent, or files a petition for bankruptcy or insolvency, make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; enter proceedings for winding up or dissolution are dissolved; or are nationalized or become subject to the expropriation of all or substantially all of its business or assets.

    9.4. Upon termination of this Agreement, all licenses granted under Section 2 will expire, except that any licenses extended to end-users pursuant to Sections 2.1(b), 2.1(c), and 2.2(b), which have been granted prior to such termination will survive.

    9.5. After termination of this Agreement by either party and upon NXP's written request, Licensee will, at its discretion, return to the NXP any confidential information including all copies thereof or furnish to NXP at the address below, a statement certifying, with respect to the Licensed Software delivered hereunder that the original and all copies, except for archival copies to be used solely for dispute resolution purposes, in whole or in part, in any form, of the Licensed Software have been destroyed.

    9.6. Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement for any reason, the terms of Sections 1, 3, 4 through 31 will survive.

10. SUPPORT.  NXP is not obligated to provide any support, upgrades or new releases of the Licensed Software under this Agreement. Licensee may contact NXP and report problems and provide suggestions regarding the Licensed Software. NXP has no obligation to respond to such a problem report or suggestion. NXP may make changes to the Licensed Software at any time, without any obligation to notify or provide updated versions of the Licensed Software.

11. FEEDBACK.  Licensee will advise NXP of any results obtained including any problems or suggested improvements to the Software and the Tools. NXP has the right to use any Feedback and related information provided by Licensee in any manner it deems appropriate.

12. FEES AND PAYMENT TERMS

    12.1.      Licensee will pay NXP the fees, charges and other amounts specified during the Order Process within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice.

    12.2.      Overdue balances are subject to a service charge equal to the lesser of 1.5% per month or the maximum legal interest rate allowed by law.  Licensee will be responsible for all shipping costs and taxes levied on any transaction under this Agreement, including all federal, state, and local taxes, levies and assessments, excluding any tax based on NXP's income.

13. LIMITED WARRANTY

13.1. Authority. Licensee represents and warrants that (i) it has the authority to enter into this Agreement without any additional approvals or consents not previously obtained, (c) to the best of Licensee's knowledge, this Agreement is fully enforceable in accordance with its terms.

13.2. NXP warrants that for a period of 90 days following the initial download of the Licensed Software by Licensee:(i) the Licensed Software will substantially comply with its associated Documentation and (ii) Maintenance and support services will be provided with reasonable skill and care conforming to generally accepted software industry standards.

13.3. Remedy. If the Licensed Software, or Maintenance and support services are not as warranted, NXP will, as Licensee's exclusive remedy, at its option and at no cost to Licensee, (a) provide remedial services necessary to enable the Licensed Software to conform to the warranty, or re-perform the support services, or (b) replace any defective Licensed Software, or (c) refund amounts paid by Licensee and received by NXP in respect of the defective Licensed Software, or support services. NXP's warranty obligations will only extend to material errors that can be demonstrated to exist in an unmodified version of the Licensed Software except where the modifications were carried out by NXP. Licensee will notify NXP promptly in writing of any breach of warranty. Licensee will provide NXP with a reasonable opportunity to remedy any breach and reasonable assistance in remedying any defects. The remedies set out in this subsection are Licensee's sole remedies for breach of the above warranties. This warranty will not be expanded, and no obligation or liability will arise, due to technical advice or assistance, qualification or testing data, computerized data, facilities or service NXP may provide in connection with the Software or Tools.

13.4. No Other Warranty. NXP does not warrant that the functions contained in the Licensed Software, will meet Licensee's requirements or that operation of the Licensed Software will be uninterrupted or error free. The warranty contained in this Section 13 extends to Licensee only and may be invoked only by Licensee for its customers. NXP will not accept warranty claims from Licensee's customers. THIS WARRANTY IS IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, INCLUDING EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, NONINFRINGEMENT, TITLE, QUALITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

14. INDEMNIFICATION

14.1. Subject to the limitations and exclusions stated below, NXP will defend any Covered Claim against Licensee, and will indemnify Licensee only for finally awarded damages that are attributable to the Covered Claim. "Covered Claim" means that portion of a lawsuit alleging that the Software, Tools or both infringes a valid U.S. patent, infringes a copyright, or misappropriates a trade secret.

14.2. Required Procedures. NXP will have no obligation to defend or indemnify Licensee unless Licensee: (i) promptly notifies NXP in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after Licensee first becomes aware of the Covered Claim, but in no event later than 30 days after Licensee first receives notice of a claim relating to the Covered Claim; and (ii) gives NXP sole control of the defense of the Covered Claims and all requested assistance for defending the Covered Claim. NXP will not be liable for the settlement of a Covered Claim made without NXP's consent. If a Covered Claim is asserted prior to completion of delivery of the Licensed Software, NXP may decline to make further shipments. If Licensee obtains counsel for defense of claims other than a Covered Claim, License does so at its own expense.

14.3.	Exclusions.	NXP will have no obligation to defend or indemnify Licensee if: (i) Licensee or any third party has altered the Licensed Software, and the alleged infringement would not have occurred but for such alteration; (ii) Licensee or any third party has combined the Licensed Software with any other products or elements not furnished by NXP, and the alleged infringement would not have occurred but for such combination; (iii) the use of other than a current release of Licensed Software; (iv) the Licensed Software were designed or manufactured in accordance with Licensee's designs, specifications, or instructions, and the alleged infringement would not have occurred but for such designs, specifications, or instructions or (v) the Licensed Software was designed or manufactured in compliance with standards issued by any public or private standards body, and the alleged infringement would not have occurred but for such standards.

14.4.	Limitations on Payable Damages.	NXP's liability for damages will not exceed (i) a reasonable royalty rate on the Licensed Software that is the subject of the Covered Claim, multiplied by (ii) the revenue derived by NXP from sales or license to Licensee of the Licensed Software.

14.5.	THIS SECTION CONTAINS (I) NXP'S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND ALL OBLIGATIONS RELATED TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION, AND (II) LICENSEE'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES AGAINST NXP FOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION.

15. INDEMNITY. Licensee agrees to fully defend and indemnify NXP from all claims, liabilities, and costs (including reasonable attorney's fees) related to (1) Licensee's use (including your contractors or distributee's use, if permitted) of the Licensed Software or (2) Licensee's violation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

16. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.  EXCLUDING LIABILITY FOR A BREACH OF SECTION 2 (LICENSE GRANTS), SECTION 4 (LICENSE LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS), SECTION 21 (CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION), OR CLAIMS UNDER SECTION 15 (INDEMNITY), IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE, FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, DAMAGES FOR ANY LOSS OF USE, LOSS OF TIME, INCONVENIENCE, COMMERCIAL LOSS, OR LOST PROFITS, SAVINGS, OR REVENUES, TO THE FULL EXTENT SUCH MAY BE DISCLAIMED BY LAW.  NXP'S TOTAL LIABILITY FOR ALL COSTS, DAMAGES, CLAIMS, OR LOSSES WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR PRODUCT(S) SUPPLIED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIMITED TO THE AGGREGATE AMOUNT PAID BY LICENSEE TO NXP IN CONNECTION WITH THE LICENSED SOFTWARE TO WHICH LOSSES OR DAMAGES ARE CLAIMED.

17. EXPORT COMPLIANCE.

Each party shall comply with all applicable export and import control laws and regulations including but not limited to the US Export Administration Regulations (including prohibited party lists issued by other federal governments), Catch-all regulations and all national and international embargoes. Each party further agrees that it will not knowingly transfer, divert, export or re-export, directly or indirectly, any product, software, including software source code, or technology restricted by such regulations or by other applicable national regulations, received from the other party under this Agreement, or any direct product of such software or technical data to any person, firm, entity, country or destination to which such transfer, diversion, export or re-export is restricted or prohibited, without obtaining prior written authorization from the applicable competent government authorities to the extent required by those laws.

18. GOVERNMENT CONTRACT COMPLIANCE.

    18.1.       If Licensee sells Authorized Systems directly to any government or public entity, including U.S., state, local, foreign or international governments or public entities, or indirectly via a prime contractor or subcontractor of such governments or entities, NXP makes no representations, certifications, or warranties whatsoever about compliance with government or public entity acquisition statutes or regulations, including, without limitation, statutes or regulations that may relate to pricing, quality, origin or content.

    18.2.       The Licensed Software has been developed at private expense and is a "Commercial Item" as defined in 48 C.F.R. §2.101, consisting of "Commercial Computer Software", and/or "Commercial Computer Software Documentation," as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. §12.212 (or 48 C.F.R. §227.7202, as applicable) and may only be licensed to or shared with U.S. Government end users in object code form as part of, or embedded within, Authorized Systems.  Any agreement pursuant to which Licensee shares the Licensed Software will include a provision that reiterates the limitations of this document and requires all sub-agreements to similarly contain such limitations.

19. SAFETY CRITICAL APPLICATIONS

    19.1.       In some cases, NXP may promote certain Licensed Software for use in safety-related applications. NXP's goal is to educate licensees so that they can design their own end-product solutions to meet applicable functional safety standards and requirements.  Licensee makes the ultimate design decisions regarding its products and is solely responsible for compliance with all legal, regulatory, safety, and security related requirements concerning Licensee products, regardless of any information or support that may be provided by NXP.  Accordingly, Licensee will indemnify and hold NXP harmless from any claims, liabilities, damages and associated costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) that NXP may incur related to Licensee's incorporation of any Licensed Software in a safety-critical application or system.

    19.2.       Only Licensed Software that NXP has specifically designated as "Automotive Qualified" is intended for use in automotive, military, or aerospace applications or environments.  If you use Licensed Software that has not been designated as "Automotive Qualified" in an automotive, military, or aerospace application or environment, you do so at your own risk.

    19.3.       Licensed Software is not intended or authorized for any use in anti-personnel landmines.

20. CHOICE OF LAW; VENUE.  This Agreement will be governed by, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, USA, without regard to conflicts of laws principles, will apply to all matters relating to this Agreement or the Licensed Software, and Licensee agrees that any litigation will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state or federal courts Texas, USA.  The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will not apply to this document.

21. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.  Subject to the terms of this License Agreement, Licensee must treat the Licensed Software as confidential information and Licensee agrees to retain the Licensed Software in confidence perpetually, with respect to Licensed Software in source code form (human readable), or for a period of five (5) years from the date of termination of this Agreement, with respect to all other parts of the Licensed Software.  During this period Licensee may not disclose any part of the Licensed Software to anyone other than employees, or sub-contractors in accordance with Section 3.1, who have a need to know of the Licensed Software and who have executed written agreements obligating them to protect such Licensed Software to at least the same degree of care as in this Agreement.  Licensee agrees to use the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, with the Licensed Software as Licensee does with its own confidential information. Licensee may disclose Licensed Software to the extent required by a court or under operation of law or order provided that Licensee notifies NXP of such requirement prior to disclosure, which Licensee only discloses information required, and that Licensee allows NXP the opportunity to object to such court or other legal body requiring such disclosure.

22. DIGITAL RIGHTS MANAGEMENT. The Licensed Software may include Digital Rights Management ("DRM"), which controls the rights you have to the Licensed Software. Licensee will not take any action to circumvent this DRM or reverse engineer it in any way and you will only use the Licensed Software as the DRM allows.

23. TRADEMARKS.  Licensee is not authorized to use any NXP trademarks, brand names, or logos.

24. ENTIRE AGREEMENT.  This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Licensee and NXP regarding the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all prior communications, negotiations, understandings, agreements or representations, either written or oral, if any.  This Agreement may only be amended in written form, signed by Licensee and NXP.

25. SEVERABILITY.  If any provision of this Agreement is held for any reason to be invalid or unenforceable, then the remaining provisions of this Agreement will be unimpaired and, unless a modification or replacement of the invalid or unenforceable provision is further held to deprive Licensee or NXP of a material benefit, in which case the Agreement will immediately terminate, the invalid or unenforceable provision will be replaced with a provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to the intention underlying the invalid or unenforceable provision.

26. NO WAIVER.  The waiver by NXP of any breach of any provision of this Agreement will not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or a subsequent breach of the same or a different provision.

27. AUDIT.  Licensee will keep full, clear and accurate records with respect to its compliance with the limited license rights granted under this Agreement for three years following expiration or termination of this Agreement. NXP will have the right, either itself or through an independent certified public accountant to examine and audit, at NXP's expense, not more than once a year, and during normal business hours, all such records that may bear upon Licensee's compliance with the limited license rights granted above. Licensee must make prompt adjustment to compensate for any errors and/or omissions disclosed by such examination or audit.

28. NOTICES.      All notices and communications under this Agreement will be made in writing, and will be effective when received at the following addresses:

NXP:              NXP USA Inc,
                  6501 William Cannon West OE62
                  Austin, Texas 78735
                  ATTN: Legal Department

Licensee:    The address provided during the Order Process.

29. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES.    The parties are independent contractors. Nothing in this Agreement will be construed to create any partnership, joint venture, or similar relationship. Neither party is authorized to bind the other to any obligations with third parties.

30. SUCCESSION AND ASSIGNMENT.   This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their permitted successors and assigns.  You may not assign this Agreement, or any part of this Agreement, without the prior written approval of NXP, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. NXP may assign this Agreement, or any part of this Agreement, in its sole discretion.

APPENDIX A

Other License Grants and Restrictions:
The Licensed Software may include some or all of the following software, which is either 1) not NXP proprietary software or 2) NXP proprietary software subject to different terms than those in the Agreement. If the Software Content Register that accompanies the Licensed Software identifies any of the following Third Party Software or specific components of the NXP proprietary Software, the following terms apply to the extent they deviate from the terms in the Agreement:

Amazon: Use of the Amazon software constitutes your acceptance of the terms of the Amazon Program Materials License Agreement (including the AVS Component Schedule, if applicable), located at https://developer.amazon.com/support/legal/pml.  All Amazon software is hereby designated "Amazon confidential".  Amazon is a third-party beneficiary to this Agreement with respect to the Amazon software.

Amphion Semiconductor Ltd.: Distribution of Amphion software must be a part of, or embedded within, Authorized Systems that include an Amphion Video Decoder.

Atheros: Use of Atheros software is limited to evaluation and demonstration only. Permitted distributions must be similarly limited. Further rights must be obtained directly from Atheros.

ATI (AMD): Distribution of ATI software must be a part of, or embedded within, Authorized Systems that include a ATI graphics processor core.

Broadcom Corporation: Your use of Broadcom Corporation software is restricted to Authorized Systems that incorporate a compatible integrated circuit device manufactured or sold by Broadcom.

Cadence Design Systems: Use of Cadence audio codec software is limited to distribution only of one copy per single NXP Product. The license granted herein to the Cadence Design Systems HiFi aacPlus Audio Decoder software does not include a license to the AAC family of technologies which you or your customer may need to obtain. Configuration tool outputs may only be distributed by licensees of the relevant Cadence SDK and distribution is limited to distribution of one copy embedded in a single NXP Product.

Cirque Corporation: Use of Cirque Corporation technology is limited to evaluation, demonstration, or certification testing only. Permitted distributions must be similarly limited. Further rights, including but not limited to ANY commercial distribution rights, must be obtained directly from Cirque Corporation.

Coding Technologies (Dolby Labs): Use of CTS software is limited to evaluation and demonstration only. Permitted distributions must be similarly limited. Further rights must be obtained from Dolby Laboratories.

CSR: Use of Cambridge Silicon Radio, Inc. ("CSR") software is limited to evaluation and demonstration only.  Permitted distributions must be similarly limited.  Further rights must be obtained directly from CSR.

Cypress Semiconductor Corporation: WWD RTOS source code may only be used in accordance with the Cypress IOT Community License Agreement located at https://community.cypress.com/terms-and-conditions!input.jspa?displayOnly=true.

Future Technology Devices International Ltd.: Future Technology Devices International software must be used consistent with the terms found here:
http://www.ftdichip.com/Drivers/FTDriverLicenceTerms.htm

Global Locate (Broadcom Corporation): Use of Global Locate, Inc. software is limited to evaluation and demonstration only.  Permitted distributions must be similarly limited.  Further rights must be obtained from Global Locate.

Microsoft: If the Licensed Software includes software owned by Microsoft Corporation ("Microsoft"), it is subject to the terms of your license with Microsoft (the "Microsoft Underlying Licensed Software") and as such, NXP grants no license to you, beyond evaluation and demonstration in connection with NXP processors, in the Microsoft Underlying Licensed Software.  You must separately obtain rights beyond evaluation and demonstration in connection with the Microsoft Underlying Licensed Software from Microsoft. Microsoft does not provide support services for the components provided to you through this Agreement.  If you have any questions or require technical assistance, please contact NXP.  Microsoft Corporation is a third party beneficiary to this Agreement with the right to enforce the terms of this Agreement. Real Time Engineers Ltd.: Any FreeRTOS source code, whether modified or in its original release form, or whether in whole or in part, can only be distributed by you under the terms of version 2 of the GNU General Public License plus this exception. An independent module is a module which is not derived from or based on FreeRTOS.

Clause 1: Linking FreeRTOS with other modules is making a combined work based on FreeRTOS. Thus, the terms and conditions of the GNU General Public License V2 cover the whole combination.

As a special exception, the copyright holders of FreeRTOS give you permission to link FreeRTOS with independent modules to produce a statically linked executable, regardless of the license terms of these independent modules, and to copy and distribute the resulting executable under terms of your choice, provided that you also meet, for each linked independent module, the terms and conditions of the license of that module. An independent module is a module which is not derived from or based on FreeRTOS.

Clause 2: FreeRTOS may not be used for any competitive or comparative purpose, including the publication of any form of run time or compile time metric, without the express permission of Real Time Engineers Ltd. (this is the norm within the industry and is intended to ensure information accuracy).
